Making the most of financial experts in family matters

WEDNESDAY 8 FEBRUARY 2012

1.5 CPD POINTS – ADVOCACY STRAND

CODE: BAQ0112

This seminar is aimed at junior barristers and those wanting a refresher on accounting and valuation expert evidence in family matters. Those practising other jurisdictions will also find this seminar to be instructive when dealing with expert evidence. The focus for the session will be on improving your practical knowledge and skills including:

- Effectively navigating the FCA and FMC Rules in respect of expert evidence
- Working with single experts: what options, resources and strategies are available
- Preparing and presenting applications for leave: recent authorities and other key considerations
- Insights and overview of expert evidence issues in forensic accounting cases
- Analysing the issues that arise in valuation evidence – a checklist of what to include in the instructions!

Following the presentations there will be a panel discussion and the opportunity to ask the experts your questions. If you wish to email in your questions to the panel beforehand please send to cpd@qldbar.asn.au.
